Center of Hope

Center of Hope (COH) provides fresh and healthy foods to individuals and families in rural Ohio, including to households located in Knox and surrounding Counties. The Bladensburg Center of Hope location has a free food market where customers can shop for fresh and healthy foods. Center of Hope has mobile locations throughout the county so they can be convenient for anyone. Additional food programs are available to seniors who qualify. All customers must pre-register and meet income guidelines to receive food. COH provides a chaplain service, if needed, and a Care Team can assist with other needs or make referrals to other community services.

Take What You Need

Knox County is blessed to have a couple "take what you need" organizations. They are extremely valuable for persons and families who need a meal to get by until the end of the month. School-age children especially appreciate this type of help.
