

Day Ten - Child Labor

Objective: Students will understand the impact of child labor during the Industrial Revolution - supplementing the reading

1. BINGO
2. Keynote with Guided Notes

Day Eleven - Triangle Shirtwaist Fire

Objective: Students will understand the working conditions and issues faces by the workers. This will also allow students to understand the changes that were brought about as a result of the Industrial Revolution

1. BINGO
2. Warm Up - Child Labor
3. Keynote - Triangle Shirtwaist Fire with Guided Notes

Days Twelve and Thirteen

Objectives: Students will examine placard and information gathering data and important information concerning the Industrial Revolution. At each station, students will identify both positive and negative effects of the Industrial Revolution, as well as listing ways to improve the negative effects

1. BINGO
2. Cooperative Station Work - Effects of the Industrial Revolution
3. Students will rotate to new station, or packet will travel every 5-7 minutes
4. Teacher will move from station to station with groups and clarify anything, checking for understanding and encouraging students to look at all of the possible answers

Days Fourteen and Fifteen - Editorial

Objective: Students will use the graphic organizer (Google Classroom template) from

